THE HONOURBALE SRI JUSTICE N.V. RAMANA

W.P. No. 7098 OF 2003

ORAL ORDER:

Seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondents to pay the retirement benefits due to the petitioner, the present writ petition is filed.

The petitioner, who worked as a lecturer in Pharmacy, retired from service on the afternoon of 31.8.2001 from the second respondent college and had an uninterrupted service. The petitioner submits that she is entitled to all the benefits viz., gratuity, encashment of leave, etc. She further submits that out of total retirement benefits of Rs.5,19,644/-, she was paid a sum of Rs.1,03,933/- only, though it is the prime duty of the 2nd respondent to pay the entire retirement benefits and since her requests to pay other retirement benefits fell on deaf ears, she came up with the present writ petition.

A detailed counter affidavit is filed by the second respondent stating that the 2nd respondent college is sponsored by the Exhibition Society and the expenditure is shared by the first respondent to the extent of 80% and the remaining 20% is contributed by the Exhibition Society. It is further submitted that only an amount of Rs.1,05,807/- is left over to be paid by the respondents, which could not be paid inasmuch as the share of the first respondent was not released. It is agreed by the respondent – Management that it will pay the amount within six weeks.

Having regard to this submission made by the respondent, the writ petition is closed directing the 2nd respondent to pay an amount of Rs.1,05,807.50 Ps. within six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No order as to costs.
